From the President

Welcome to the 122nd Kelmscott Agricultural Show. With the pandemic forcing us to cancel the show in 2020, it was a huge disappointment for all our Committee & Volunteers. We have decided to make some changes for 2021 to help reduce the risk and expenditure associated with putting on a large event in such uncertain times – This year we will return to the Friday night and Saturday day format with fireworks only happening on Friday.

The Kelmscott Agricultural Show continues to be a Smoke-Free event despite the Kelmscott Agricultural Society not renewing our sponsorship with Healthway. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Healthway and the WA State Government for their support over the years. I also want to thank our patrons for respecting the rights of others by maintaining a smoke free environment for all of us to enjoy.

This year we are carrying over our theme of “Bringing our Community Together!”. Our wider community has been resilient in dealing with COVID, but many businesses, community groups, sporting clubs and families have felt the impact of the restrictions, both financially and socially. We hope that the Show will give the community an opportunity to celebrate this resilience and have some fun together.

Patrons are urged to observe all current Department of Health and WA State Government Covid-19 guidelines to ensure that we enjoy a safe and healthy 2021 Kelmscott Agricultural Show.

Putting on the Kelmscott Agricultural Show is a year-round activity for our volunteers. I thank the Show Committee of the Kelmscott Agricultural Society for their hard work across the year. I also would like to thank the many volunteers from the Community who come together for show week to assist our team in getting the Show grounds ready for action and who work tirelessly during the Show in the pavilions and across the show.

Over the past year we recognised the service of Victor James, Marc Poupart and Julie Clark who all retired from the Committee. They were valued members of our committee over a long duration with Victor having served for 34 years, Marc 9 years and Julie 8 years. This combined knowledge which will be hard to replace.

I would like to single out Victor who held many roles including President, Vice President, Treasurer and Steward in Charge of Pigeons and Poultry, Cattle and Sheep while also coordinating the Machinery Preservation club displays. He was also involved in the building of the old livestock ramp on the lower oval. His time on the executive was 15 years and he was part of the small team that was responsible for the building of the School Pavilion and the Cyril Rushton Building.

Over the past year we also recognised the 10 years’ service on the committee of Kim Fletcher. Kim joined as a Councillor in 2009 and has been our Steward in Charge of Arts, and involved with the display for the Kelmscott Historical Society at the Show. He brings to the KAS the history of the district and has been a valuable member of our society.

Once again, I would like to thank everyone for their support that ensures the Kelmscott Agricultural Show is such a special community event.

Mr Daryl Dawes
President, Kelmscott Agricultural Society

From the Mayor

It is my pleasure to welcome you to this year's Kelmscott Agricultural Show.

I would like to pay my respects to the traditional custodians of this land, the Whadjuk people of the Noongar nation and Elders. past, present, and emerging. The City of Armadale is proud to be able to provide sponsorship and support to the Kelmscott Show and this year's theme, "Bringing Our Community Together", is particularly significant, given the disappointment of 2020.

For over 100 years, the Kelmscott Show has had a history of bringing our community together, through good times and bad. And it's thanks to our community's hard work and resilience that we are able to come together, to celebrate our beautiful region, once again. Attending and helping at the Kelmscott Show is a tradition for many local families (including mine) and I am particularly looking forward to enjoying this year's event after having to forego last year's because of COVID-19 restrictions.

From the Patron

As Patron of the Kelmscott Agricultural Society, it is my great honour to welcome you to the 2021 Kelmscott Show.

The last 20 months have been difficult for many people in our community and across our nation. We have been reminded through the experience of the pandemic of the importance to the community of events that bring people together, such as the Kelmscott Show. I am proud of how our community has responded in such tough times and reminded of how lucky we are to be able to stage this year's event. My thanks and praise go to the hard-working team at the Kelmscott Agricultural Society for their tireless efforts in bringing you what I am sure will be a wonderful weekend. And in the words of the great Bonnie Tyler - 'Let The Show Begin'.

Dr Tony Buti MLA - Member for Armadale

As a fun and affordable day out for all ages, there will be fireworks and something for everyone to enjoy, with local musicians performing, food stalls, rides, and a variety of agricultural and trade stalls. The full exhibition will be held in the main hall, providing an opportunity for community members and local schools to display their wares. The display will showcase local produce, along with art and craft items produced by our talented locals. Competition for the enormous number of prizes and awards is sure to bring out the best in exhibitors!

On behalf of the City of Armadale, I would like to congratulate and thank the Kelmscott Agricultural Society Councillors, committee members and the many volunteers who have contributed to the on-going success of the Kelmscott Show and making this year's something to truly celebrate.

Mayor Ruth Butterfield,
City of Armadale

William (Bill) Spencer Volunteer Award - 2019

In 2014, a volunteer award was dedicated to the memory of the late Bill Spencer who was a life member, past president and had dedicated over 50 years of volunteer service to the Kelmscott Agricultural Society.

In 2019 this award was presented to Raewynne James. Raewynne has been volunteering for KAS for over 20 years. She began in the Poultry Pavilion doing the paperwork and prize cards for the Steward.
