From the President

Welcome to the 123rd Kelmscott Agricultural Show. The 2021 show theme "Bringing our Community Back Together" certainly lived up to the idea with KAS recording its largest overall attendance with just under 15,000 coming through the gates. From all the feedback received from the various stakeholders (Patrons, Vendors, and Volunteers), the show was thoroughly enjoyed by all. We are hopeful that the 2022 show will be just as enjoyable and entertaining as last year.

Putting on the Kelmscott Agricultural Show (KAS) is a year-round activity for our volunteers. I thank the Show Management Committee of the KAS for their hard work across the year. I also would like to thank the many volunteers from the community who come together for show week to assist our team in getting the Show grounds ready for action and who work tirelessly during the Show in the pavilions and across the show. Volunteering is the lifeblood of our society, and the show just wouldn't be able to go on without the countless hours that are put in for the betterment of our local community.

At the 2022 AGM, we celebrated several achievements by our Committee and Volunteers.

- Timothy Choules 10 years of service: Tim is one of the hardest working members of the Committee and his contribution to KAS is one that deserves recognition and applause. Tim currently sits on our Executive Committee as the Senior Vice President but also works tirelessly behind the scenes looking after the logistics (equipment planning for the show) and providing guidance to the wider Show Management Committee.

- Life Membership Vaughan James: Vaughan was recognised in 2020 for 20 years of dedicated service to KAS. He has held many roles within the society including Publicity, IT, Sponsorship, Grants, Schedule Editor, Vice President, and President (2015-2018 & 2020). Overall, Vaughan has shown a strong commitment to modernising our systems and updating our technology to allow the Committee to work from home. A particular legacy has been his focus on strengthening the ongoing financial stability of the Kelmscott Agricultural Society.

- Volunteer of the Year Award: Luke Mucciarone was recognised for his dedication to KAS in 2021. Luke assisted with the show set up and pack up and was available throughout the show operation. He was thrown lots of curve balls throughout the event and was able to work to get them resolved. Luke went above and beyond the call.
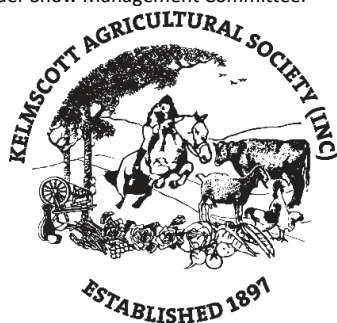

With COVID still causing havoc across the world, Patrons are urged to observe all current Department of Health and WA State Government COVID guidelines. We want to ensure that we enjoy a safe and healthy 2022 Kelmscott Agricultural Show.

Once again, I would like to thank everyone for their support that ensures the Kelmscott Agricultural Show is such a special community event.

Mr Daryl Dawes
President, Kelmscott Agricultural Society

From the Mayor

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 123rd Kelmscott Agricultural Show.

I would like to acknowledge and pay my respects to the traditional custodians of the land on which the Show is held, the Whadjuk people of the Noongar nation, and their Elders past, present and emerging.

The City of Armadale is proud to sponsor and support this long-running show which has been an important part of the community since 1897. The Show is a terrific family-friendly event. It's a time when we celebrate our community. From competitive displays of home-grown fruit and flowers to animal exhibits of dairy goats, donkeys, sheep, and cattle, log chopping, river markets, and of course, sideshow alley.

This year's theme of "Youth" recognises the importance of young people in our community and in the history of the Kelmscott Agricultural Show. The Show has always showcased the talents of young people in the district and has also offered entertainment in a safe environment.

Many locals continue family traditions by displaying their produce and creations and also, by volunteering to run the Show. It's a tradition that brings generations together and everyone can enjoy an event that is an integral part of our community.

On behalf of the City of Armadale, I would like to congratulate and thank the Kelmscott Agricultural Society Councillors, committee members, and the many volunteers who contribute to the ongoing success of the Show. I look forward to attending the Kelmscott Agricultural Show again this year and I know the show will be cherished by our community for many years to come.

Mayor Ruth Butterfield,
City of Armadale

From the Patron

As Patron of the Kelmscott Agricultural Society, it is my great honour to welcome you to the 2022 Kelmscott Agricultural Show.

The Show is now in its 125th year and as always promises to delight and entertain the young and young at heart. With thrilling rides, a sideshow alley, exhibitions, amazing stalls with homemade crafts and foods and the Fireworks Spectacular, there is something for everyone.

It is of course important to remember that the Kelmscott Show highlights our long history as an agricultural region and showcasing this was the reason the Show was first established. I encourage everyone to take some time to explore and engage with the agricultural component of the Show. There is much on offer such as log chopping, equestrian events, livestock displays, a petting zoo and wonderful local produce.

My thanks and praise go to the hard-working team at the Kelmscott Agricultural Society for their tireless efforts in bringing you what I am sure will be a wonderful weekend.

Dr Tony Buti MLA - Member for Armadale

William (Bill) Spencer Volunteer Award - 2021

In 2014, a volunteer award was dedicated to the memory of the late Bill Spencer who was a life member, and past president who had dedicated over 50 years of volunteer service to the Kelmscott Agricultural Society.

In 2021, the award was presented to Samantha Carey. Samantha is the Secretary of the Kelmscott Tennis Club and has been of invaluable assistance to KAS during the Show and over the entire year. She has always been there to help out, she keeps the well-being of the Kelmscott Agricultural Society in mind in all the KTC dealings and around the Community. She goes out of her way to help us, e.g., doing the volunteer catering on Show Wednesday as a personal favour to us, not as a part of the KTC contribution.

Always approachable and cheerful. A worthy recipient of the William B Spencer Award.
