From the President

Welcome to the 124th Kelmscott Agricultural Show. Our 2022 show was thoroughly enjoyed by all and we are hopeful that the 2023 show will be just as enjoyable and entertaining. We have loads of new things happening at the show this year, which is a culmination of the efforts of the volunteers throughout the year.

Putting on the Kelmscott Agricultural Show is a year-round activity for our volunteers. I thank the Show Management Committee of the Kelmscott Agricultural Society for their hard work throughout the year. I also would like to thank the many volunteers from the community who come together for show week to assist our team in getting the Show grounds ready for action and who work tirelessly during the Show in the pavilions and across the show. Volunteering is the lifeblood of our society, and the show just wouldn't be able to go on without the countless hours that are put in for the betterment of our local community.

At the 2023 AGM, we celebrated several achievements by our Committee and Volunteers.

Life Membership Timothy Choules: In 2022, Tim was recognised for 10 years of service as a KAS Councillor. He has been an essential and highly regarded member of the KAS Council and Executive and currently serves as the Infrastructure Coordinator. He served as Jnr Vice President: 2013 – 2014 and Snr Vice President: 2015 – 2017 & 2020 – 2022.
To prepare the Citation, we ran a spot survey with the question "What do you think is Tim's superpower?". Unsurprisingly the most frequent answer was "capable". Of course, there was also reliable, friendly, willing to step up, solution finder, problem solver and one of his greatest strengths, "not afraid to speak his mind".
Tim is always seeking improvements to make KAS a better organisation. Tim goes above and beyond for the Society and the Kelmscott Agricultural Show and we are proud to award Life Membership to Timothy Choules.
Volunteer of the Year Award: The Volunteer of the Year Award was presented to Jan Davies. In her inaugural year as Assistant Secretary – Bookings, Jan did an amazing job, taking responsibility for equipment and services not only being booked but turning up when scheduled. She not only juggled all the bookings, but she made herself available in the pre-show week assisting in the office and running errands and doing shopping all over the suburbs for us. The Office hadn't looked so tidy for years. During the Show she helped with the Sponsor function and was around to help smooth out problems. Jan Davis was the Volunteer of the Year and much appreciated.

I would like to acknowledge the commitment and support of our show by our Sponsors. We put the call out each year to local businesses looking for support and assistance (both financial and in-kind support) and the businesses in the area step up and jump on board. We welcomed back a lot of long-standing sponsors and have some new sponsors starting their first year of sponsorship this year. Without our sponsors, the costs of the show would be higher which in turn would lead to higher entry fees for our patrons. Through their sponsorship, our sponsors are helping to keep the costs down for our patrons which is especially important now while cost of living pressures are increasing.

Once again, I would like to thank everyone for their support that ensures the Kelmscott Agricultural Show is such a special community event.

Mr Daryl Dawes
President, Kelmscott Agricultural Society

Message From the Mayor

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the Kelmscott Agricultural Show – an iconic event for the community for the past 124 years.

I would like to acknowledge and pay my respects to the traditional custodians of the land on which the Show is held, the Whadjuk people of the Noongar nation, and their Elders past, present and emerging.

The popular Kelmscott Agricultural Show continues to delight families of all ages and offers affordable entertainment for the whole family with the action-packed sideshow alley, roving performances, live music and market stalls – animals galore and everything agricultural!

Proudly supported by the City of Armadale, the iconic show has been a much-loved local event since 1897 – and is like a real country show, only it is in the city!

Every year the Show has something new to offer, and this year there are even more exciting activities that will delight families of all ages, with some free activities on Saturday that include garden-related activities – making a bee hotel and seed bonding.

There will also be giant board games, Funky Monkey Jungle Gym and plaster painting.

This year's theme is Gardening 4 Life with an emphasis on creating an urban forest in your own backyard no matter the size. To showcase the theme visitors can visit a variety of pop-up garden displays that include worm warming, water-wise landscaping, raised vegetable gardens, creating native gardens to mention just a few.

On behalf of the City of Armadale, I would like to thank the members of the Kelmscott Agricultural Society for their commitment and dedication in ensuring the show is a success every year.
Last year had an attendance of over 16,000 people, so be sure to secure your tickets by visiting www.kelmscottshow.com.au.

Mayor Ruth Butterfield,
City of Armadale

William (Bill) Spencer Volunteer Award - 2022

In 2014, a volunteer award was dedicated to the memory of the late Bill Spencer who was a life member, and past president who had dedicated over 50 years of volunteer service to the Kelmscott Agricultural Society.

Lorraine Usher

Lorraine has assisted in the Exhibition Hall for many, many years, and now works as second in charge to Betty in the Needlework Section. Lorraine made herself available when Betty was not well. She works quietly in the background, helping wherever required.
During Show week, Lorraine comes to the Office to assist in receiving the Quilts on the Monday (Quilt arrival day) but in between quilt duties she helps with catering for the grounds volunteers, making sandwiches, washing up and being very useful.
She does the same thing every day, keeping an eye out for any job that needs doing. Lorraine is very deserving of this award.

H.D. Mutton Memorial Trophy

The H.D. Mutton Memorial Trophy is awarded, by the Council of the KAS, in memory of a tireless worker for the Kelmscott community.

Horace Desmond Mutton was born in 1918 at Casino, New South Wales.

Dem Mutton, as he preferred to be called, was an orchardist and poultry farmer on River Road. The Kelmscott Agricultural Society owns part of his property which it uses for parking on show days.

One of Dem's great loves was the Kelmscott Agricultural Society where he was a Councillor, Treasurer and Secretary. He was approached to be President a few times but thought he would be of more benefit to the Society by remaining Secretary. In those days the Secretary was responsible for running the show.

The Management Committee is made up entirely of volunteers who work continuously throughout the year and appreciates the assistance volunteers provide for the Show.

Our thanks also extend to the Teachers, Support Staff and students of local Primary and Secondary Schools who give up their own time to support our Show.

We also acknowledge and thank the many local businesses and community groups who provide support by publicising and promoting the Show to the wider community. The Kelmscott Agricultural Show is a Community Event and without the support of the volunteers, the staging of the Show would not be possible. We invite you to join us and be an active participant in staging such an awesome event.

The decision of the veterinary surgeon shall be final and binding on all parties. Any entry by an exhibitor will be deemed an acceptance of this clause.
9. No stock shall be eligible to compete which has been declared by the veterinary surgeon during the Show to be suffering from any kind of parasite, contagious or infectious disease; neither shall stock be entitled if in that condition, to receive a prize if awarded, unless the committee shall consider the owner of such stock was not to blame in the matter. The veterinary inspector shall give his decision in writing, duly signed, to the secretary and such opinion shall be final as regards the conditions of such stock.
10. Should an exhibitor request the attendance of a veterinary surgeon, all costs associated with the attendance of the veterinary surgeon will be borne by the owner of the injured or diseased animal.
